Other Business

Chairman Trent noted that the General Assembly convenes on the 8th and is expected to consider the new mental health standards, which are supported by Secretary Brian Moran. Also expected to be considered in the new session are the recommendations from JLARC (Joint Legislative Audit and Review Commission) regarding Board of Corrections operations.

Chairman Trent also noted that the Associations (Virginia Sheriffs' Association and the Virginia Association of Regional Jail) will meet with the Compensation Board to discuss issues requested by the associations for presentation before the legislators. One issue mentioned by Chairman Trent is Forensic Discharge Planners who assist inmates with mental health care access upon release, greatly reducing recidivism, 80+% for Blue Ridge Regional Jail Authority.

Steve Goff Reported that there were 41 deaths in local jails in 2019, 44 in 2018 and 40 during the final 6 months of 2017, when the Jail Death Review Committee was formed by mandate. Kemba Jennings is working on an end of year report analysis
